

Our Mission is to provide subsidized remodeling solutions to families demonstrating a financial hardship as a result of being the victim of contractor fraud, incompetent workmanship or a life changing event.

Mission Statement:

To provide subsidized remodeling solutions to families demonstrating a financial hardship as a result of being the victim of contractor fraud, incompetent workmanship, or a life changing event.

Subsidized:

Funding all or a portion of the costs at no charge to the family.

Remodeling Solutions:

Our work is focused exclusively on providing the basic necessities of housing.

Financial Hardship:

The family must provide verifiable proof that they cannot cover the costs of: Finishing or correcting the work after being the victim of contractor fraud or incompetent workmanship; Suffering a life changing event that now requires changes to the home.

Contractor Fraud:

The family hired a contractor to work on their home, made significant payments in excess of the work performed at the time of payment and the contractor left the job incomplete.

Incompetent Workmanship:

The family hired someone to work on their home and the work is discovered to be substandard to a point of being unsafe and hence requiring all or a portion of the work to be redone.

Life Changing Event:

An event which results in the need for modifications to the home in order to accommodate the family member. Examples of a Life Changing Event are: Becoming wheelchair bound and needing the doorways, kitchen, baths, thresholds etc to be modified to provide access to the house; Aging-In-Place and needing a bathroom with a tub to be modified with a barrier free shower

Funding:

Remodeling Rescue will be funded by private donations as well as monetary, labor and materials donations from suppliers, contractors, and trade organizations of the remodeling and building community.

Leadership:

Remodeling Rescue is led by David Hollander, a 20+ year veteran of the remodeling industry and owner of New Look Properties, Inc., a high quality remodeling company that specializes in the design/build of kitchens and baths.
